

2020 Student Art Contest & Community Art Show Details and Rules

Thank you for your interest in the 2020 National Cherry Blossom Student Art Contest & Community Art Show (Contest) presented by the National Cherry Blossom Festival, Inc. (NCBF) and the DC Arts & Humanities Education Collaborative (DC Collaborative). Here are the details for this year's Contest.

2020 THEME

NCBF and DC Collaborative invite students from DC public and public charter schools and Japanese schools (grades K through 12) to create and submit to the Contest an artwork (Entry) that depicts the theme Home is Where the Blossoms Are and that focuses on Friendship and shows what cherry blossoms mean to the student and the student's community (2020 Theme).

The 2020 Theme is part of the 2020 National Cherry Blossom Festival (Festival), the world's greatest springtime celebration! The Festival commemorates the 1912 gift of over 3,000 cherry trees from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo to the city of Washington, DC. The Festival deepens the public's connection to nature, enriches communities and honors the unique friendship between the United States and Japan by inspiring creative international exchange and collaboration.

HOW TO GET STARTED

- Help your individual students create an Entry (Individual Entry) or a group of students create an Entry (Group Entry) that:
 - Represents the 2020 Theme (although the words of the 2020 Theme do not need to appear on the Entry).
 - Conveys location as a backdrop to the story that the Entry tells, exploring self-portraiture or drawing focal point.
 - Articulates their perceptions of cherry blossoms in their community (like D.C. artist Lilly Spandorf (<https://fineartamerica.com/profiles/lily-spandorf-art.html>)).
 - Uses different styles to explore and express the world and communities around them (like D.C. artist Michael Hammond (<http://muralsdcproject.com/mural/sasha-bruce-house/>)).
 - Depicts springtime through the lens of the community in which students live or attend school.
 - Depicts the friendship between the United States and Japan, perhaps by referencing the history of the Festival HERE.
- Ensure that Individual Entries:
 - For grades K – 5 use photography, canvas art, poster art or mixed media.
 - For grades 6 – 12 use photography, canvas art, poster art, mixed media or digital computer-generated media.

- Measure between 18 x 24 and 22 x 28 if they are on heavy weight (cover or card stock) paper or 18 x 24 if they are on poster board or canvas.
- Keep to a minimum any commercial lettering on or media that may fall off of the Entry.
- Ensure that Group Entries:
 - Are created by all members of the class submitting the Group Entry
 - For grades K – 12 use poster art only.
 - Measure no larger than 70 x 46
 - Keep to a minimum any commercial lettering on or media that may fall off of the Entry.

Students who are immediate family members of or living in the same household as an NCBF or DC Collaborative employee, officer or director may not participate in the Contest.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR INDIVIDUAL AND GROUP ENTRIES

- You may submit as many Entries as you wish.
- If you submit more than ten Individual Entries, you must provide to NCBF, with your Entries, which ten of the total Individual Entries that you are submitting are, in your judgment, the ten best Individual Entries (Top Ten Entries).
 - Complete an Identification Form clearly and legibly and affix it to the back of each Individual Entry and Group Entry.
 - Have parents or guardians of artists complete and provide you with a Release Form for their artist.
 - Affix to each Individual Entry the completed individual Release Forms from the parent or guardian of the Individual Entry artist.
 - Affix to each Group Entry a completed Release Form from the parent or guardian of each Group Entry artist
 - Complete and submit the Electronic Submission Form.
